New York Stock Exchange.

New York, February 17.—The stock market opened dull at advances of 1/4 @ 3/4. Further slight gains occurred in early trading, but advance soon checked and prices declined to a shade below the opening figures and the market became stagnant.

LATER.—Stocks were higher and more active to-day, on the circulated reports that the Reading strike was settled—the news affecting the whole list. There was a large covering of shorts. First price generally showed an advance over last night's closing figures of from 1/4 to 3/4 per cent., and the advance was further increased in the first hour; but the market drifted into its usual dullness, and prices sagged a little. Reading took the lead toward noon, however, and the entire list responded, and it was not till near 2 p. m. that a halt was called. Some slight reaction occurred, but buying was again in good in the last hour, and the market closed quiet but firm, to strong at about the best figures of the day.

Governments, dull but steady, to firm.
